GDN STAFF SOUGHT FOR APC EVENT

HOW TO GET THERE

Vickers is located at 933 Garrett Street, Atlanta GA 30316

Please RSVP!

The Atlanta Press Club is asking anyone who plans to attend this event to please RSVP at 404-57 PRESS. Remember, the event is free.

And while you're at it, how about hitting the "reply" button and letting us know if you're coming?

Oh - one more thing: if we've missed anyone on our e-mail list and you happen to know how to reach them, forward this message or give them a call. We are hoping to get as many former staffers together as possible since this is the only reunion event planned until 2012.

Atlanta Press Club Sets Time, Date To Honor Daily News

ATLANTA - The Atlanta Press Club will honor the legacy of The Gwinnett Daily News during its monthly mixer, being held Wednesday, September 26 between 6 and 9 p.m. at Vickers's new location in Glenwood Park.

There is no fee to attend the mixer, but the Press Club does ask that anyone planning to attend this event to please call and RSVP at 404-57 PRESS.

Former staff members will be the special guests of the Atlanta Press Club, the largest such organization outside of Washington, D.C.

All former members of the paper are thereby cordially invited to attend the mixer, which will be the only reunion event scheduled until, hopefully, 2012. Please come sample the Press Club's hospitality as well as catch up and reminisce with all your old friends and colleagues.
